

ROBERTA GANDIN
Contemporary artist

Born in Venice, she lives and works in Padua, Italy.

She attended the artistic high school and Academy of art in Turin and she refined figurative painting technique at Academy of art in Venice with professor and sculptor Alberto Viani. Her career collects many successes through collective and important personal exhibitions in Italy and abroad.

She boasts of more than one hundred exhibitions. Her artistic route goes from figurative and abstract painting, to non-objective art. The abilities of the artist include also sculpture: few but really precious bronze works that make Roberta Gandin an all-round artist.
